Event managers are needed to plan and coordinate all aspects of bringing event ideas to life. From global events and festivals, to conferences, corporate events, regional food and sporting weekends, event management has evolved into big business.

This growth nationally and internationally has been fuelled by the increase in the number, size and sophistication of events.

This programme delivers a mix of practical and theoretical modules, which will provide you with the knowledge and skills required to work in various aspects of event management.

Professional Placement: Six month work placement in Ireland or Abroad.

Study Abroad Opportunities: Erasmus study opportunity.

Further Study: Graduates can progress to a broad range of programmes at post-graduate level.

"TU954 provided me with the experience, tools and knowledge to further my career in Event Management. The work placement opportunities incorporated throughout the 4 years were invaluable and allowed me to gain a great sense of the different aspects of the event industry. After leaving TU954 & TU Dublin I know I am ready for whatever the industry throws at me and am excited for my future!"
